

NEW HORIZONS CASE STUDY

National Oceanic & Atmospheric Administration

Introduction

This case study of National Oceanic & Atmospheric Administration is based on an April 2016 survey of New Horizons customers by TechValidate, a 3rd-party research service.

“New Horizons has provided me with valuable additional knowledge for working with MS Windows Server 2012R2.”

Challenges

The business challenges that led the profiled organization to evaluate and ultimately select New Horizons:

- Considered Government pre-paid training coupons to be the most influential factor when deciding to take classes from New Horizons

Use Case

The key feature and functionality of New Horizons that the surveyed organization uses:

- Considers online virtual instructor-led training (Online LIVE) as their preferred training modality

Results

The surveyed organization achieved the following results with New Horizons:

- Rates the value of New Horizons' courses as excellent
- Realized the following benefit from their training: Improved productivity
- Improved their job performance by more than 25% since taking the training

Organization Profile

Organization:
National Oceanic & Atmospheric Administration

Organization Size:
Federal

Industry:
Government

About New Horizons

For 30 years, New Horizons has provided more than 30 million students with industry-leading technical training that delivers the most relevant and intuitive computer courses and certifications.

New Horizons is now the world's largest independent IT training company.

Learn More:

New Horizons

Source: Luigi Long, Network Administrator, National Oceanic & Atmospheric Administration

Research by  TechValidate